CLAFLIN.
From The Clarion.

U. J. Warren of Guyman, Okla. made a short visit with his sister Mrs. John Poore, this week.

Mrs. L. McDermet and daughters returned Saturday night from Oklahoma where they spent the holidays with relatives.

O. T. Stevens returned Tuesday to his home in Caldwell, Kan., after several days' visit at the M. L. Allen home.

Mrs. E. Esfelt was in town Monday morning, having come from Hoinington where she had spent several days visiting with her daughter Mrs. Hoinish.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Soeken returned home last week from Talmage, Neb., where they spent several months with Mrs. Soeken's parents and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Norris and daughter of New Oastle, Pa., and G. W. Norris and family of Burlington are visiting at the E. H. Norris home northeast of town.

Mrs. Craig, mother of Mrs. J. H. Kramer, is still quite ill at the Kramer home. Mrs. Kramer and children have also been sick but are improving at the present time.

W. A. Eggleman was out from Kansas City a couple of days this week. He reports his family enjoying good health and Marion as being ready at any time to move back to Claflin. Al is now engaged in the livery business in the city.

Fred Simpson was driving out south Sunday with a six weeks old colt following the animal he was driving. There are a number of holes in the bridge floor. The colt stepped into one of the places breaking its leg. This we suppose will make a finish of the colt.
